

I am writing to express concern regarding the potential elimination of the privacy act that protects me from unwanted solicitation phone calls. I pay for my phone in my home for my own use, not to be harrassed by solicitors of any type. Please consider strengthening this protection, not eliminating it.